

21st Century

TEENS *Junior*¹

第27/687期初二课件
南京外国语学校 毛菁倩

Pre-reading

What does IQ stand for ? What does it mean?

What does EQ stand for ? What does it mean?

Pre-reading

Have you ever heard the word “FQ”? What does it mean?

Pre-reading

FQ (Financial Quotient 财商)

Word in use

- financial [faɪ'nænʃl]
 - 财政的, 金融的
- e.g.
- financial system
 - financial crisis

Saving and spending your money

英国青少年的“理财经”。

词数 250 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 8分钟

Are you good with money? Do you get pocket money from your parents or do you work to earn money? Read on to find out about British teenagers and their cash!

Pocket money

Most teenagers in Britain receive pocket money from their parents. They might have to do chores to get their pocket money. These chores can include cleaning, cooking, washing dishes, and ironing (熨烫).

Part-time work

A part-time job is an option (选择) for teenagers who don't have pocket money or who want to earn extra (额外的) money. About 15 percent of teenagers have a job. Only children over the age of 13 can work. Popular part-time jobs for teens include babysitting, delivering newspapers, shop work and restaurant work.

Children in Britain can work a maximum (最多) of two hours a day on a school day but not during school hours. During weekends and school holidays, they can work longer hours.

Bank account

Some children and teenagers have a bank account. There is no legal (法定的) age limit (限制) at which you can open a bank account (账户), but a bank manager can decide whether to open an account for a child or young person. Parents can put pocket money directly into their child's bank account. Most banks have a prepaid (预付的) bank card designed for young people.

So, many teenagers are getting experience working part-time, dealing with banks and deciding

There are many ways for teenagers to earn and save pocket money. CFP whether to save or spend their money. These are all steps towards becoming a financially (财政上) independent person and earning and looking after your own money.

BRITISH COUNCIL

LearnEnglish Teens

For more fun videos and activities provided by the British Council please scan QR code

Fast reading

The story mainly tells us about _____.

A. how British kids get pocket money

B. British kids' part-time jobs

C. how British kids get and deal with their pocket money

D. where British kids' money comes from

Fast reading

The story mainly tells us about _____.

A. how British kids get pocket money

B. British kids' part-time jobs

C. how British kids get and deal with their pocket money

D. where British kids' money comes from

Read and find out

How do most British teenagers get money?

Saving and spending your money

英国青少年的“理财经”。😊😊😊 👤 词数 250 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 8分钟

Are you good with money? Do you get pocket money from your parents or do you work to earn money? Read on to find out about British teenagers and their cash!

Pocket money

Most teenagers in Britain receive pocket money from their parents. They might have to do chores to get their pocket money. These chores can include cleaning, cooking, washing dishes, and ironing (熨烫).

Part-time work

A part-time job is an option (选择) for teenagers who don't have pocket money or who want to earn extra (额外的) money. About 15 percent of teenagers have a job. Only children over the age of 13 can work. Popular part-time jobs for teens include babysitting, delivering newspapers, shop work and restaurant work.

Children in Britain can work a maximum (最多) of two hours a day on a school day but not during school hours. During weekends and school holidays, they can work longer hours.

Bank account

Some children and teenagers have a bank account. There is no legal (法定的) age limit (限制) at which you can open a bank account (账户), but a bank manager can decide whether to open an account for a child or young person. Parents can put pocket money directly into their child's bank account. Most banks have a prepaid (预付的) bank card designed for young people.

So, many teenagers are getting experience working part-time, dealing with banks and deciding

There are many ways for teenagers to earn and save pocket money. CFP

whether to save or spend their money. These are all steps towards becoming a financially (财政上) independent person and earning and looking after your own money.

LearnEnglish Teens

For more fun videos and activities provided by the British Council please scan QR code

Read and find out

How do most British teenagers get money?

- They receive pocket money from their parents.
- They can earn money by doing part time jobs.

Read and find out

How do most British teenagers get money?

- They receive pocket money from their parents.
- They can earn money by doing part time jobs.

What about Chinese teenagers?

Read and find out

Pocket money

Most teenagers in Britain receive pocket money from their parents. They might have to do chores to get their pocket money. These chores can include cleaning, cooking, washing dishes, and ironing (熨烫).

If British teenagers want to receive pocket money from their parents, what do they have to do?

Read and find out

Pocket money

Most teenagers in Britain receive pocket money from their parents. They might have to do chores to get their pocket money.

These chores can include cleaning, cooking, washing dishes, and ironing (熨烫).

If British teenagers want to receive pocket money from their parents, what do they have to do?

What does “chore” here mean?

Most teenagers in Britain receive pocket money from their parents. They might have to do chores to get their pocket money. These chores can include cleaning, cooking, washing dishes, and ironing (熨烫).

Can you use the word guessing skill we've learned?

What does “chore” here mean?

Most teenagers in Britain receive pocket money from their parents. They might have to do chores to get their pocket money. These chores can include cleaning, cooking, washing dishes, and ironing (熨烫).

Word guessing skill: guessing meaning from the context

Word in use

•chore [tʃɔ:(r)]

•家庭杂务

e.g.

•do household chores

Read and answer

Part-time work

A part-time job is an option (选择) for teenagers who don't have pocket money or who want to earn extra (额外的) money. About 15 percent of teenagers have a job. Only children over the age of 13 can work. Popular part-time jobs for teens include babysitting, delivering newspapers, shop work and restaurant work.

Children in Britain can work a maximum (最多) of two hours a day on a school day but not during school hours. During weekends and school holidays, they can work longer hours.

What are the popular part-time jobs for teens in Britain?

Read and answer

Part-time work

A part-time job is an option (选择) for teenagers who don't have pocket money or who want to earn extra (额外的) money. About 15 percent of teenagers have a job. Only children over the age of 13 can work. Popular part-time jobs for teens include babysitting, delivering newspapers, shop work and restaurant work.

Children in Britain can work a maximum (最多) of two hours a day on a school day but not during school hours. During weekends and school holidays, they can work longer hours.

What are the popular part-time jobs for teens in Britain?

babysitting

delivering newspapers

shop work

restaurant work

Popular part-time jobs for British teens

babysitting

delivering newspapers

shop work

restaurant work

Popular part-time jobs for British teens

babysitter

delivering newspapers

Do you know some other popular part-time jobs for teens in Britain?

shop work

restaurant work

More popular part-time jobs for British teens

lawn mowing

lifeguard

dog walker

car washer

More popular part-time jobs for British teens

house cleaning

caregiver tutoring

pet sitter

Question

What part-time jobs do Chinese teenagers usually do?

what you need to know about

PART-TIME JOBS

IN CHINA

Read and answer

Part-time work

A part-time job is an option (选择) for teenagers who don't have pocket money or who want to earn extra (额外的) money. About 15 percent of teenagers have a job. Only children over the age of 13 can work. Popular part-time jobs for teens include babysitting, delivering newspapers, shop work and restaurant work.

Children in Britain can work a maximum (最多) of two hours a day on a school day but not during school hours. During weekends and school holidays, they can work longer hours.

What should British teenagers pay attention to if they work part-time? Why?

Read and answer

Part-time work

A part-time job is an option (选择) for teenagers who don't have pocket money or who want to earn extra (额外的) money. About 15 percent of teenagers have a job. Only children over the age of 13 can work. Popular part-time jobs for teens include babysitting, delivering newspapers, shop work and restaurant work.

Children in Britain can work a maximum (最多) of two hours a day on a school day but not during school hours. During weekends and school holidays, they can work longer hours.

What should British teenagers pay attention to if they work part-time? Why?

- personal safety
- schoolwork guaranteed first (首先确保)

With money coming in, how do you deal with it? Spend it or save it?

Read and answer

Bank account

Some children and teenagers have a bank account. There is no legal (法定的) age limit (限制) at which you can open a bank account (账户), but a bank manager can decide whether to open an account for a child or young person. Parents can put pocket money directly into their child's bank account. Most banks have a prepaid (预付的) bank card designed for young people.

If British children want to open their own bank accounts, what do they need to do?

Read and answer

Bank account

Some children and teenagers have a bank account. There is no legal (法定的) age limit (限制) at which you can open a bank account (账户), but a bank manager can decide whether to open an account for a child or young person. Parents can put pocket money directly into their child's bank account. Most banks have a prepaid (预付的) bank card designed for young people.

If British children want to open their own bank accounts, what do they need to do?

They need to ask for a bank manager.

Pondering

Bank account

Some children and teenagers have a bank account. There is no legal (法定的) age limit (限制) at which you can open a bank account (账户), but a bank manager can decide whether to open an account for a child or young person. Parents can put pocket money directly into their child's bank account. Most banks have a prepaid (预付的) bank card designed for young people.

Why do some British children and teenagers open a bank account ? Are there any benefits?

Pondering

Bank account

Some children and teenagers have a bank account. There is no legal (法定的) age limit (限制) at which you can open a bank account (账户), but a bank manager can decide whether to open an account for a child or young person. Parents can put pocket money directly into their child's bank account. Most banks have a prepaid (预付的) bank card designed for young people.

Why do some British children and teenagers open a bank account ? Are there any benefits?

- prepaid function
- easy and convenient (方便的)
- safe
- a way of making the money grow
- ...

Read and answer

So, many teenagers are getting experience working part-time, dealing with banks and deciding whether to save or spend their money. These are all steps towards becoming a financially independent (财政独立的) person and earning and looking after your own.

What does “these” mean here?

Pondering

How do Chinese teenagers usually deal with their money?

Speaking of earning money and dealing with money, what are the similarities and differences between Chinese teenagers and British teenagers? Why?

Discussion: Money philosophy

- Save what you can and spend what you must.
- Save, save, save, and then buy something that makes you happy!
- Stop spending when your wallet starts feeling light.

What's your money philosophy?

Discussion: Money philosophy

- Save what you can and spend what you must.
- Save, save, save, and then buy something that makes you happy!
- Stop spending when your wallet starts feeling light.

What's your money philosophy?

Deal with money in a wise way!

21st Century

TEENS *Junior*¹

Thank you!

二十一世纪英语教育传媒出品