Dear
Basketball,

Dear Basketball

From the moment I started rolling my dad's tube socks. And shooting imaginary Game-winning shots in the Great Western Forum. I knew one thing was real : I fell in love with you.

A love so deep I gave you my all —From my mind and body to my spirit and soul. As a six-year-old boy, deeply in love with you, I never saw the end of the tunnel. I only saw myself running out of one. And so I ran. I ran up and down every court after every loose ball for you. You asked for my hustle, I gave you my heart because it came with so much more.

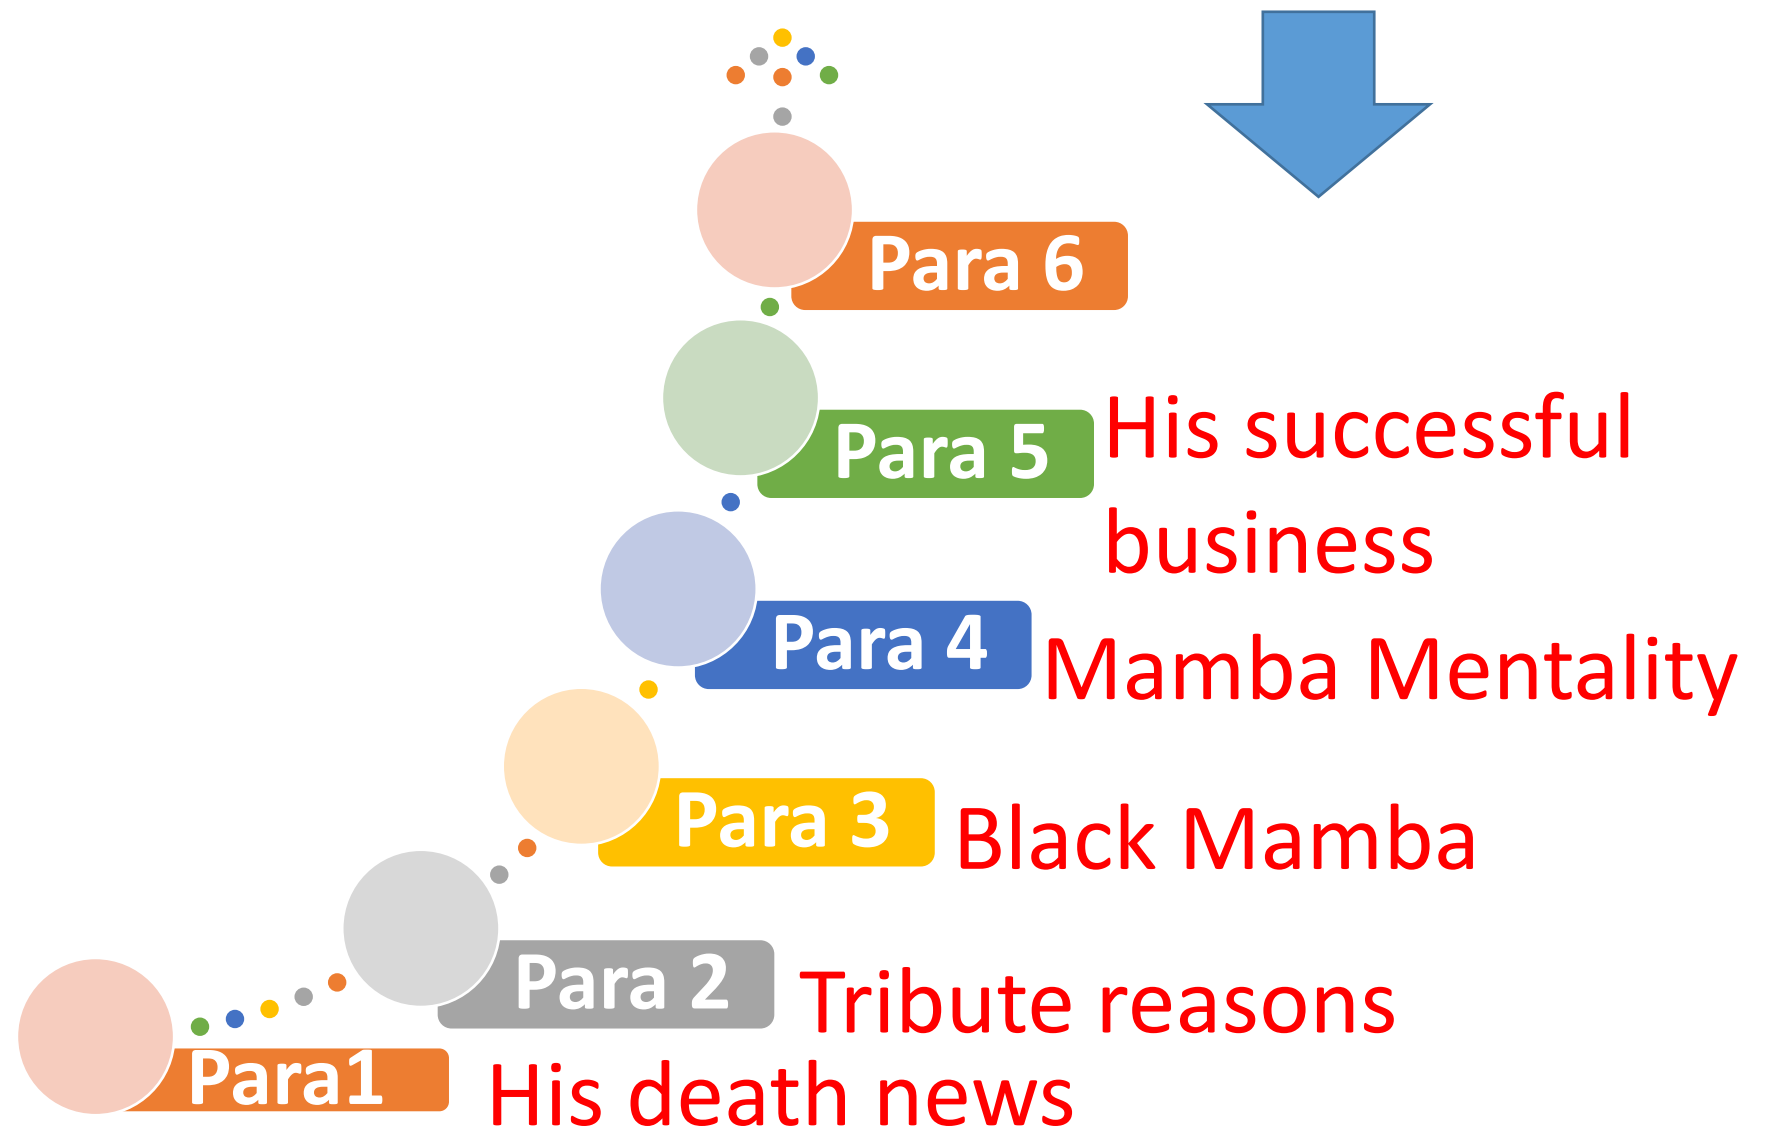

I played through the sweat and hurt, not because challenge called me, but because you called me. I did everything for you. Because that's what you do when someone makes you feel as alive as you've made me feel. You gave a six-year-old boy his Laker dream. And I'll always love you for it. But I can't love you obsessively for much longer. This season is all I have left to give. My heart can take the pounding. My mind can handle the grind. But my body knows it's time to say goodbye. And that's OK. I'm ready to let you go. I want you to know now so we both can savor every moment we have left together. The good and the bad. We have given each other all that we have.

And we both know, no matter what I do next, I'll always be that kid, with the rolled up socks, garbage can in the corner: 05 seconds on the clockball in my hands.5 ... 4 ... 3 ... 2 ... 1

Love you always,

Kobe

Kobe's words that have impressed me a lot.

I know the appearance of Los Angeles at four o'clock in the morning every day.

- I can accept failure, but I can't accept giving up.
- Stick to out of the road to your dreams.
- I know the appearance of Los Angeles at four o'clock in the morning every day.
- I know I'm playing like a piece of shit, but you don't know how much effort I've made to make myself less like a shit.
  - If you love a thing, you will overcome all difficulties .
- If you fear failure, you will fail.
- Everything I do now, is in pursuit of more perfect.
- If I feel something is wrong, I will stay in that constantly training, until I do it right.
- The low head is not to admit defeat, is to see their own way; looking up is not proud, it is to see their own sky.
- I don't want to do the second Jordan, I only want to make the first Kobe Bryant.
- Second place means you are the number one loser!
- Seize today, don't believe tomorrow.
