

2019-nCoV
Novel Coronavirus outbreak

KOBE "BEAN" BRYANT
1978-2020

DOUBLE YOG CHAMPION GU AILING EILEEN CLAIMS FIRST HALFPIPE WORLD CUP WIN

China's freestyle skiing teenage phenom triumphed in Calgary after to

By Alessandro Poggi

15 February 2020 15:28

fisfreestyle

WinSport's Canada Olympic Park

ORIGINALS

TV

SPORTS

ATHLETES

21st Century

Teens

CLAIMS FIRST HALFPIPE WORLD CUP

after to

1,388 views · Liked by jessemallis and jeremie.livingston fisfreestyle History was made in Calgary today, as @eileen_gu_ became the first freekier ever to win back-to-back World Cup competitions at the same venue in two different events, taking today's Snow Rodeo slopestyle win the day after winning the halfpipe competition. This here is how she did it... 🤯 #snowrodeo #fisfreestyle #slopestyle #freeski #history

21st Century
TEENS Senior[®]

2019-2020学年度第28期总第782期

Gu gets a tricky win (P7)

山东省烟台第二中学 孔洁

Look at the word cloud and the title. Predict what is talked about in the news report.

Gu gets a tricky win

inspirational wins

talent

try to do my best impressive display

the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit

challenge Western dominance

2022

II. Skimming

- Gu gets a tricky win
- Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).
- China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.
- The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

- Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900。twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.
- “Honestly, my mind is blown,” Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). “Coming in I didn’t have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events.”
- “I really just came in trying to do my best and ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better.”

- Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.
- Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.
- A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver – in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle – at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.
- With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

Gu gets a tricky win

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。

词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

"I really just came in trying to do my best and ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

CHINA DAILY-TEENS

宅在
发明了 别的体 想做什 录下来 下你的 投稿邮

"The Lead": The most important info

Who? What? Where? When? Why? How?

Approximately 30 words (1-2 thin paragraphs)

May include a "hook" (provocative quote or question)

"The Body": The crucial info

Argument, Controversy, Story, Issue

Evidence, background, details, logic, etc.

Quotes, photos, video, and audio that support, dispute, expand the topic

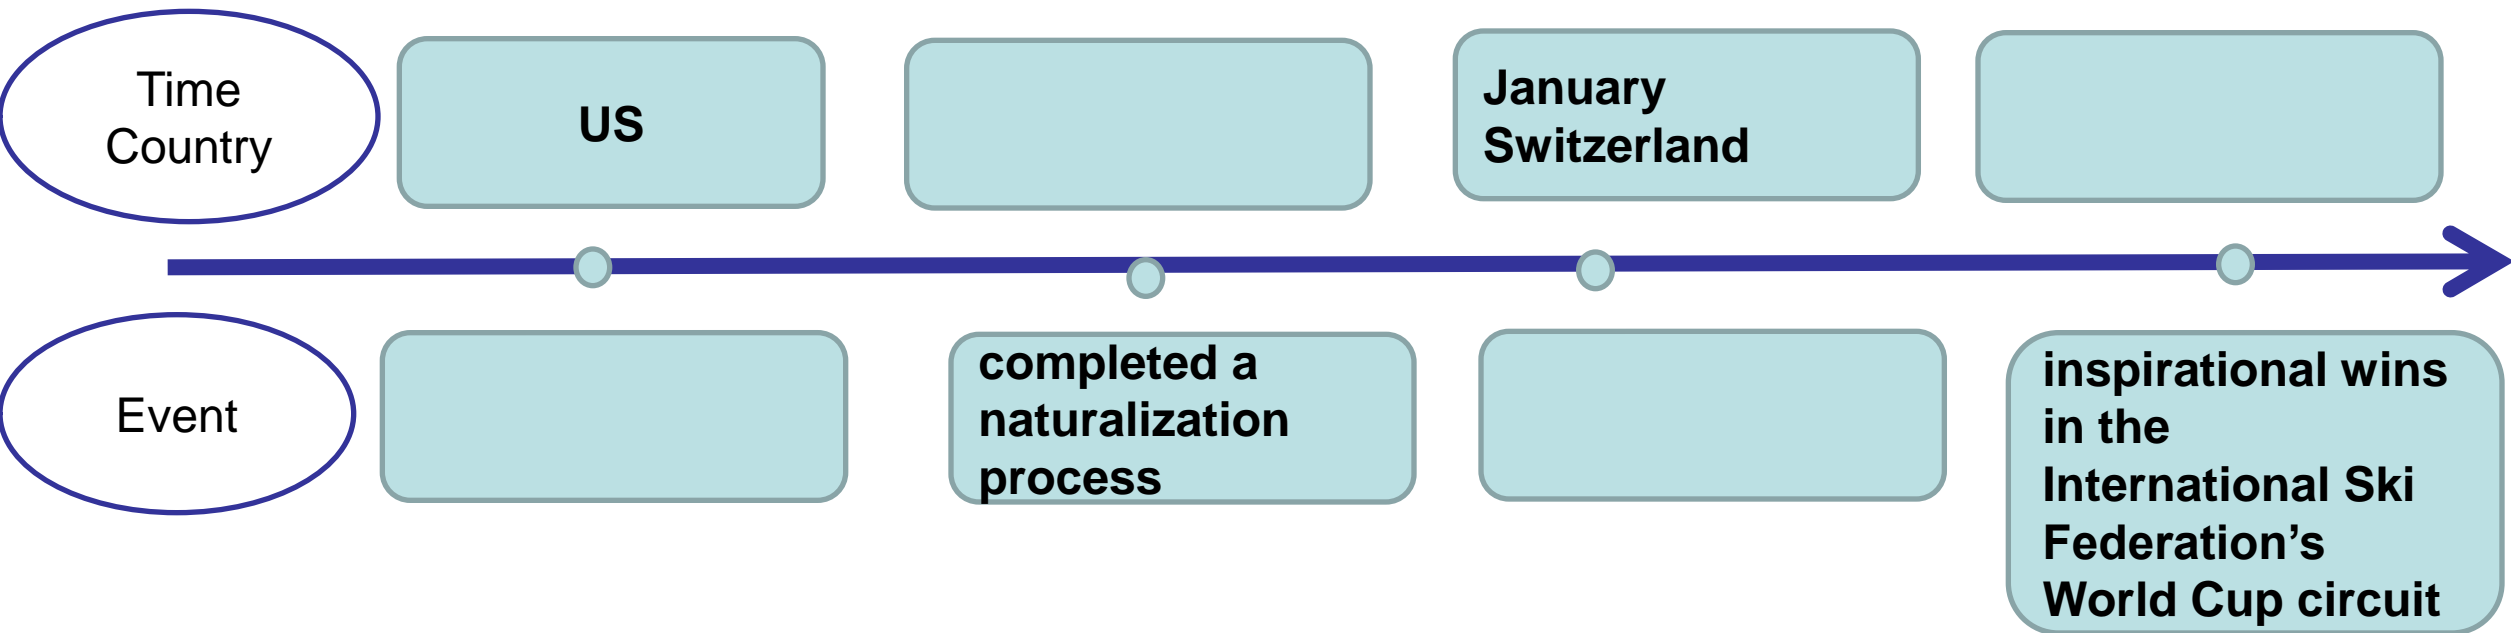

"The Tail": extra info

Interesting/Related items

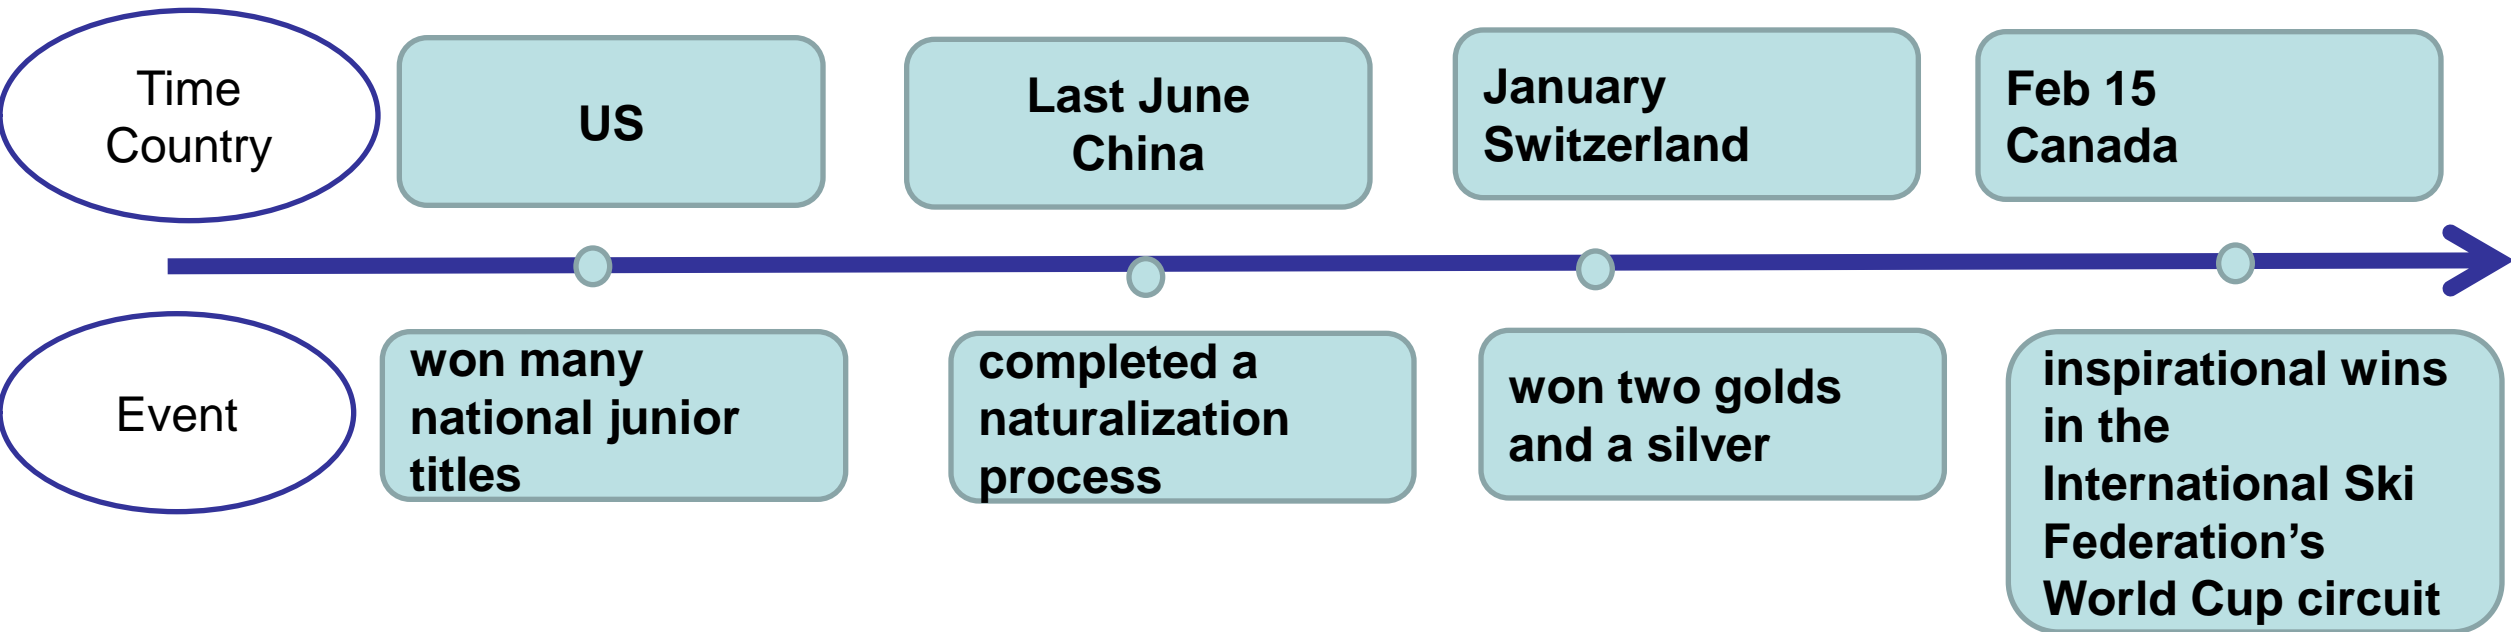

May include extra context

In blogs, columns, and other editorials: the assessment of the journalist who, what, where, when

who, what, where, when

Read and answer.

- What's your understanding of the “tricky” in the title?
- How did Gu feel for her two wins?
- What is Gu's plan for the future?
- What does the author think of Gu as an athlete?

Gu gets a tricky win

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。

词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

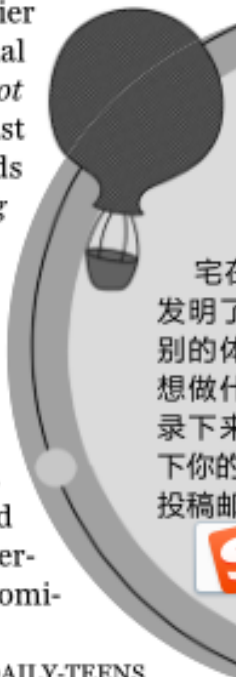

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

- What's your understanding of the "tricky" in the title?

宅在
发明了 别的体 想做什 录下来 下你的
投稿邮

Gu gets a tricky win

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。

词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

"I really just came in trying to do my best and ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

CHINA DAILY-TEENS

• What's your understanding of the "tricky" in the title?

她一举成为国际雪联历史上首位在世界杯同一场地背靠背夺得冠军的自由式滑雪选手。

宅在
发明了 别的体 想做什 录下来 下你的
投稿邮

Gu gets a tricky win

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。

词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

"I really just came in trying to do my best and ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

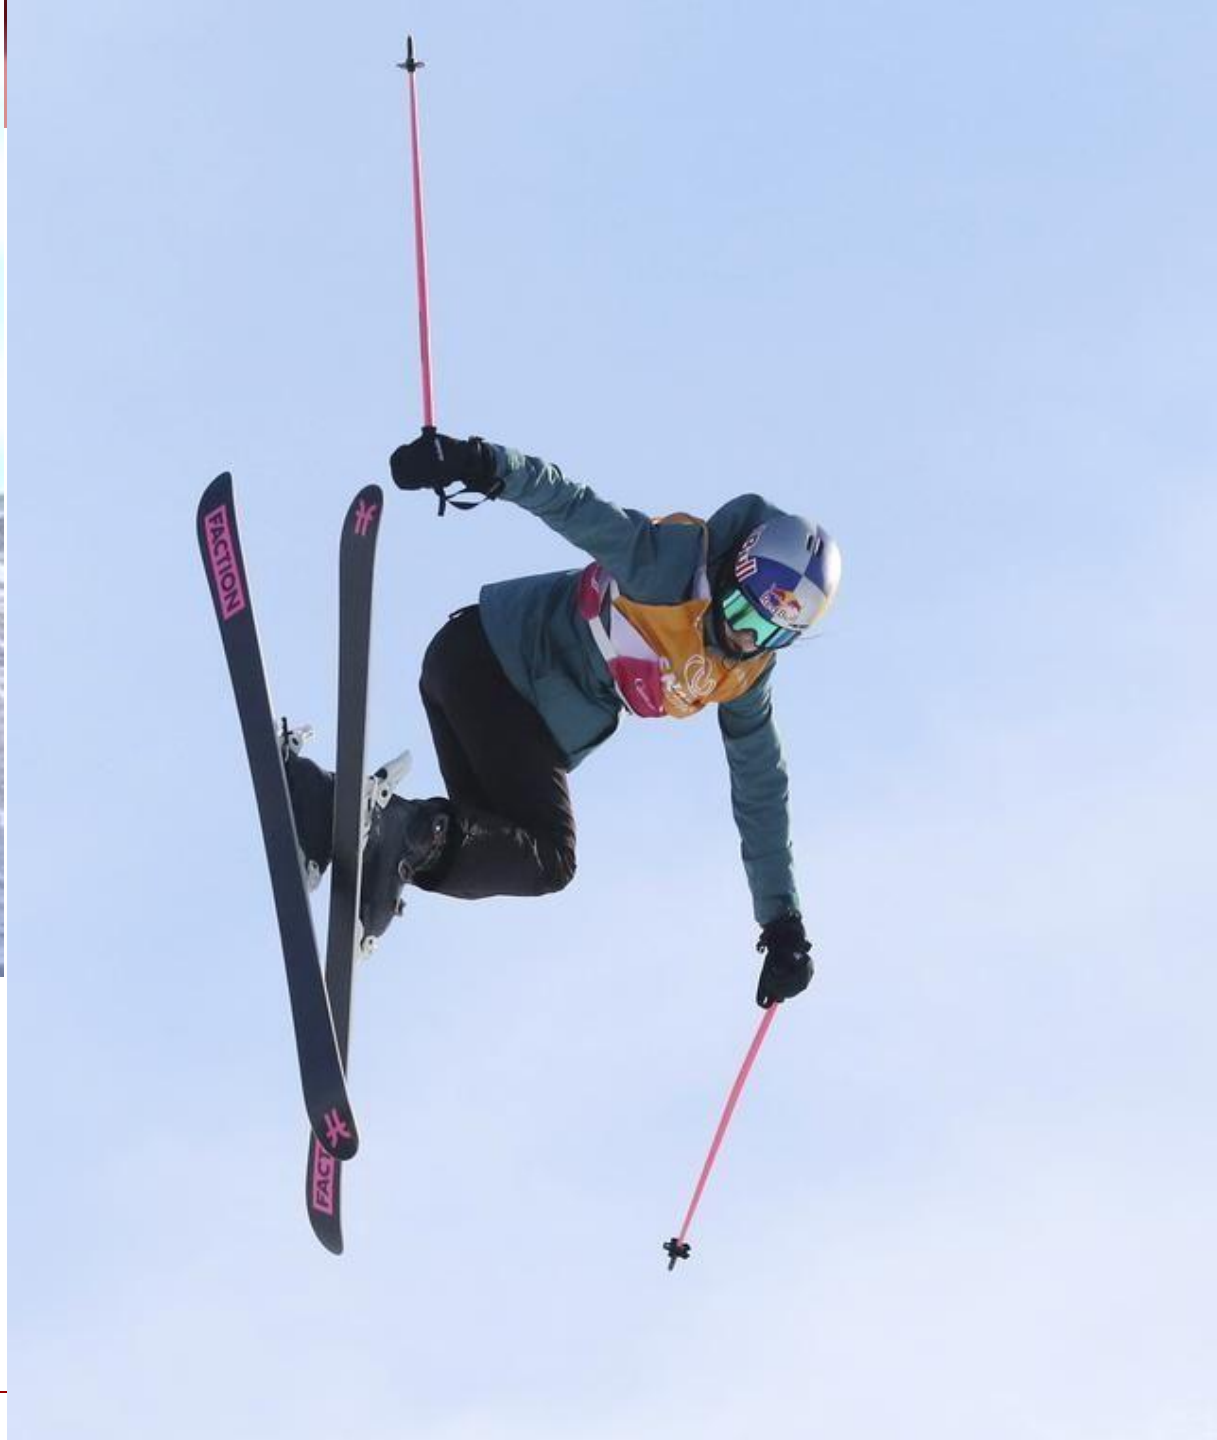

• What's your understanding of the "tricky" in the title?

她一举成为国际雪联历史上首位在世界杯同一场地背靠背夺得冠军的自由式滑雪选手。

Talented Skillful, professional

宅在
发明了 别的体 想做什 录下来 下你的
投稿邮

Gu gets a tricky win

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。

词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

CHINA DAILY-TEENS

• How did Gu feel for her two wins?

宅在
发明了 别的体 想做什 录下来 下你的
投稿邮

Gu gets a tricky win

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。 😊😊 📄 词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

- How did Gu feel for her two wins?

Surprised

宅在
发明了 别的体 想做什 录下来 下你的
投稿邮

Gu gets a tricky win

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。 😊😊 📄 词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

- How did Gu feel for her two wins?

Surprised

Focus on process and try one's best

宅在
发明了 别的体 想做什 录下来 下你的
投稿邮

Gu gets a tricky win

21st Century
Teens

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。

词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

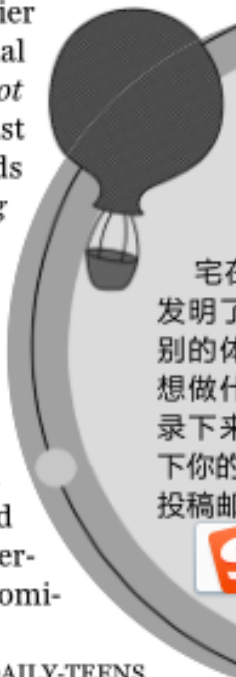

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

• What is Gu's plan for the future?

宅在
发明了 别的体 想做什 录下来 下你的
投稿邮

Gu gets a tricky win

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。

词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

• What is Gu's plan for the future?

Sights set on doing sth: plan to do sth

Gu gets a tricky win

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。

词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

• What is Gu's plan for the future?

Sights set on doing sth: plan to do sth

Confident

Gu gets a tricky win

21st Century
Teens

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。 😊😊 📄 词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

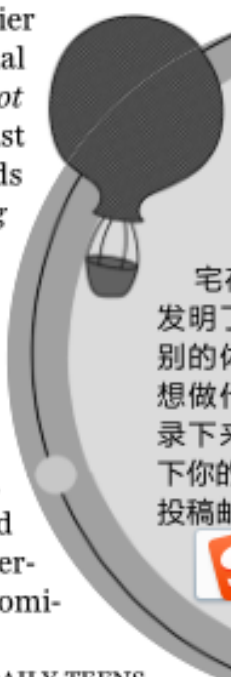

ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

宅在
发明了 别的体
想做什 录下来
下你的
投稿邮

CHINA DAILY-TEENS

- What does the author think of Gu as an athlete?
- A. proud
- B. careless
- C. promising
- D. unpredictable

Gu gets a tricky win

滑雪美少女谷爱凌惊艳U型池世界杯。

词数 388 测试见IV版
建议阅读时间 7分钟

Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest (追求) for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit (国际雪联自由式滑雪U型池世界杯).

China's Gu Ailing, an American-born freestyle talent, made history by becoming the first ever back-to-back freeski World Cup winner in two different events at the same venue (场地) after claiming the slopestyle (坡面障碍技巧项目) title in Calgary, Canada, on Feb 15.

The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe (U型场地项目) competition.

Gu again thrilled the crowds on Feb 15 in the slopestyle with another impressive display of technical riding, landing a string of difficult tricks, including a massive right 900° twist (旋转) with a tail grab (抓板尾) in her second run that earned her 89.18 points to dominate (主导) the 18-strong field.

"Honestly, my mind is blown," Gu told the FIS website after the triumph (胜利). "Coming in I didn't have any expectations. I try not to take anything for granted. Honestly, I could not have expected two wins from these events."

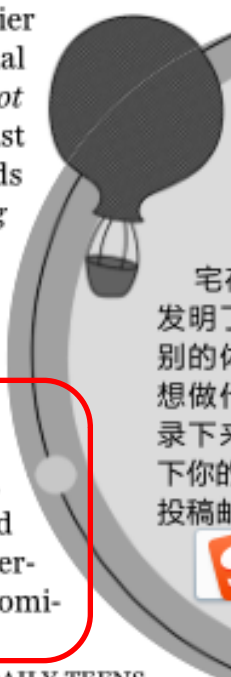

ski the way I knew I could. Skiing my best is really the best part of this, and being rewarded for it just makes it even better."

Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization (入国籍) process last June to represent China in international competitions.

Now she has her sights set on doing her mother's home country proud at the 2022 Beijing Games.

A versatile (多才多艺的) skier who has won many national junior titles in the US, Gu shot to prominence (成为热点) last month after winning two golds and a silver - in halfpipe, Big Air (大跳台) and slopestyle - at her debut (初次登台) Winter Youth Olympics in Lausanne, Switzerland.

With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.

宅在
发明了 别的体
想做什 录下来
下你的 投稿邮

- What does the author think of Gu as an athlete?
- A. proud
- B. careless
- C. promising
- D. unpredictable

Sentence understanding

- Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit.(Para. 1)

Sentence understanding

- Even with the outbreak of the novel coronavirus affecting preparations for 2022, Chinese athletes are showing no signs of letting up in their quest for Olympic glory, recently highlighted by a series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit. (Para. 1)
- Although the outbreak of the novel coronavirus influence preparations for 2022 Beijing Winter Olympics, Chinese athletes are still pursuing their Olympic glory. A series of inspirational wins in the International Ski Federation's World Cup circuit confirmed their determination.

- With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.
(Para. 10)

- With Gu now on board in freeski, China's snow sports team, which also features world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders, is determined to challenge Western dominance on the snow in 2022.
.(Para. 10)
- China's snow sports team which includes world-class aerial skiers and halfpipe snowboarders like Gu, has decided to beat western teams on the snow in 2022.

- Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization process last June to represent China in international competitions.
(Para. 7)

- Born to a Chinese mother and an American father in San Francisco, US, Gu, better known as Eileen in the States, completed a naturalization process last June to represent China in international competitions.
(Para. 7)
- Gu better known as Eileen in the States, has a Chinese mother and an American father. She joined Chinese nationality last June.

Guess the meaning of the words.

- The day before, Gu had stormed to her first Cup gold in the halfpipe competition.
- A few minutes later, the storm began.
- Police stormed the building and captured the gunman.

Feb 23th Sunday

Officials said on Saturday that 229 new cases had been confirmed since Friday, raising the total to 433.

In a televised address, Prime Minister Chung Sye-kyun described the situation as “grave”.

- case:
- In some cases, people have to wait several weeks for an appointment with doctors. A particular situation
- A murder case A matter that is being officially investigated, especially by the police.
- The most serious cases were treated at the scene of the accident. A person suffering from a disease or injury

Feb 23th Sunday

Officials said on Saturday that 229 new cases had been confirmed since Friday, raising the total to 433.

In a televised address, Prime Minister Chung Sye-kyun described the situation as “grave”.

- address:
- Please write down your name and address.
- He had scheduled an address to the American people for the evening of May 27.

adj: very serious and important

Feb 23th Sunday

Officials said on Saturday that 229 new cases had been confirmed since Friday, raising the total to 433.

In a televised address, Prime Minister Chung Sye-kyun described the situation as “grave”.

- grave:
- There were flowers on the grave.
- The police have expressed grave concern about the missing child's safety.

A place in the ground where a dead person is buried.

adj: very serious and important

- 1. Gu Ailing's two wins
- 2. The features of a news report

- Writing an article introducing Gu Ailing and sharing the inspirations you get from her.

Thank you!

二十一世纪英语教育传媒出品